In her petition, Mrs. Gregg alleges that her husband showed jealousy immediately after their marriage.

On the night of Oct. 25, she said, as she was preparing to attend the Daughters of America ball, her husband demanded to know if she intended to "make a fool of him" at the ball. There was a stormy scene and her mother interfered. They went to the ball, she said, and her husband humiliated her by telling her in crossbill filed in Judge Fisher's court Mon-Tuesday afternoon that they stole 1,000,000

Half way it passes between the sunken gardens and the grand basin, on either side of which are two magnificent bridges spanning the lagoon, on which bands will play. The "waterway" will be not only a superbly beautiful thoroughfare, but it will be immensely dignified. None of the famous roadways of the world will compare with it in any feature, save length.

Of the millions who pass over this road few probably will give a thought to its construction. To build it, the River des Peres was diverted from its natural channel and literally put into a box. Putting a river into a box and politely conducting it away from a scene at which it was not wanted would seem a piece of impertinence. But it was done, and the engineers added to it by utilizing the top of the new channel as a thoroughfare.

Over the "waterway" the dedication day parade will pass between the obelisks and standards of the "triumphal causeway that lines the road between the Liberal Arts and the Manufactures buildings to the stand at the foot of the Grand Basin, where it will be reviewed by the President of the United States.

The road is now being paved with asphalt, and will be ready for service in time for the dedication ceremonies.

ACMES WILL ROLL CRESCENT FIVE

Crack Cocked-Hat Pives Will Clash on Royal Alleys Tuesday Night.

Tuesday's Bowling Schedule. Central League — Banners vs. Juniors, Crescent alleys; Crescents vs. Acmes, Royal alleys.

Merchants League—Liemores at home to Bellevues; Haupts at home to White Roses; Long Boys at home to Coras; Cappells at home to Mead-villes; Newsteads at home to North End League Stifels at frome to Gasts; Oberbecks at home to Pursers.

Kindergarten League Eads vs.

Bankers, Acme alleys.
Office Men's Club League—Cyclers vs. Delmars, club alleys.

Royal alleys will be the scene of the hot-test cooked-hat contest of the last five weeks Tuesday night when the Acme and rescent fives will again clash.

Crescent fives will again clash.

These two teams while separated by a considerable number of games in the standing of the Central league, are running neck and neck for high team average honors and tonight's battle will have an important bearing on the Post-Dispatch high team average trophy race.

If the Crescents should fail down heavily in team average, Tuesday, it may put the Acme five almost on a par with them.

A big crowd of rooters was anticipated and the larger alleys at the Royal will prevent the crowding that occurred at the Acme cellar when the teams met in their last tilt.

The Central league match Monday night between the 1904s and the Centurys resulted in a hollow victory for the former five. The Century for the former five. The Century and all the games, rolling a 14 21-25 team average.

The general figures would have been still captured all five games, rolling a 54 21-25

The general figures would have been still better but for the bad breaks coming to Maher, holding that player's average to 43. All the other Juniors rolled like mad. 104 Habnicht and Dodge topping 300 in total pins for five games and Carmichael and Schirr going at 52 and 63 averages.

102 D. Bick did good work for the losers and rolled better than 55.

Clippers Beat

Laclede Five.

Monday night's match in the Kindergarten league between the Clippers and Lacledes was won by the former five, score 4 games to 1. Dierkes and Neuhaus, wind up men for the respective teams, were the only players of the match to top the 50 average mark. Both went a fraction over average mark. Both went a fraction over 51.

The winners turned a 48 team average—very fair bowling for the youngsters.

In the Woodward-Tiernan League matches Monday, the Lithos won four games from the Jobs and the Press team rolled out in front in the odd contest against the office five. M. Santieben's 56 for the Office five was the best mark of the evening in the average column. The Office team was unfortunate. It rolled a 48 team average, the highest in the league for the evening, yet lost out in its match.

The Goebels of the Phenix League rubbed it into the Wunches, capturing all five games in their Monday night match. A 42 team average for the winners as against a 33 mark for the losers, tells the story.

The Howards of the Office Men's League won three games from the Cardinals Monday night.

misplays favored the Cardinal score.

The East Side fans were tickled immensely to think that their team scored and are still telling what a narrow escape the Donovanites had. Well—it doesn't hart the Cardinals, and it certainly helps the East Side ball tossers.

The game was called late as the bus which carried the Cardinals to the grounds was two hours going from the hotel to the grounds. The park is out on the "hoopskirts of the city" as Jimmy Hackett would say and the crowd was rather silm. It was less than 500.

The park and grounds are new and the diamond and outfield is seft and loamy with a raise from the plate to center field that puts a premium on hits However the game was fairly well played but it was slow—very slow. Young players must needs stretch up and strut after making a play and they are seldom speedy moving in from or out to the field. Most of the East Side players are St. Louis boys.

The announcement of the Kinloch Jockey Club management that the great McChesney is a sure starter in the Inaugura stake to be run at the Florissant Valley track, is an insult to the democratic spirit. It implies that the public, which re volts against having to deplete its pocket-book for a common every-day skate, will bend a servile crown to the thoroughbred king, and "cough" up pleasantly just be cause of royal breeding.

The Kinloch management evidently had in mind something along the line of the incident related of a gentleman who had the temerity to approach Louis XIV with a disagreeable message.

Lou was feeling off his feed that day, and his face took on a billous expression as the messenger's tale proceeded. "What the hotel de ville is all this?" he the occasion and five feet ten (of which five inches were specially constructed boots). "What do you think you got coming to you?" he remarked, pleasantly.

The gnetieman wasn't at all certain about the matter, and remarked that whatever his majesty gave him would be acceptable. Whereupon Leo planted his royal foot has-tily in the center field region of the courtier's trousers, remarking:
"How do you like that?"
"Oh, sire," answered the worm, "you are too good."

Blows to the Purse Are Not Forgotten .

For the benefit of the Kinloch Park mangement we may state that his royal nibs McChesney has kicked the public in the pocketbook once this season, and we are not at all prepared to say "Thank you" after the fashion of the man in the anec-

To hold out the prospect of his having a chance to repeat the assault is, therefore, of little avail. If the Kinloch management desires to offer an inducement that surely bring out the crowd it might ounce every horse a winner or money re

It was evidently an experienced turf suf-ferer who, when asked by an inquisitive son who were the "wise" people in con-nection with the turf, answered: "These who stay away from the track my son." It's ar even money bet there were times when he became foolish himself.

Batting Practice.
"We have not been up against good pitching in our exhibition games. In fact about the only real pitching we batted against was that in the games Saturday and Sunday. That was the first time we had faced good pitchers with speed and curves this season.

"I have not so many pitchers as Donovan and I do not want to tire them by having them pitch to the batters in every morning practice. If there is any young man who thinks he has American League ability he might show up at the park some morning and I will give him a good workout."

Jack Powell is able to pitch but not to run. Beveral years ago a wagon ran over his left foot, breaking a bone. In Vicksburg Powell stumbled while running the bases and aggravated the old break. He is under the care of Dr. Starkloff, who hopes to have him ready to break into the game inside of two weeks.

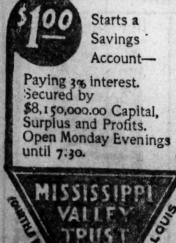

Pat Donovan gave it Sunday.

"Brown, as you know, is minus the fore-finger on his right hand and the second finger is crooked from the second joint up. Nevertheless he can throw good curves and comproi them well by holding the box. There is an explanation due from Brown as to why he lost control last Saturday and Donovan gave it Sunday.

"Brown, as you know, is minus the fore-finger on his right hand and the second finger was hurt. A blood bruise raised on it and it was impossible for him to throw any kind of a ball for the bruise interfered with the pressure on the finger paned him and after a few trials he saw that he would have to retire.

to St. Louis they stopped off at Tere Haute and took a walloping in an exhibition game.

Mort Brown pitched that same for the Hoosiers and Hackett was stationed in the infield. Richardson, a first baseman, joined Donovan on the strength of his showing in the game, but he is now back at his old post. Brown drifted to Omaha and Hackett was signed directly from Terre Haute. He was captain of that team last senson. Both boys are favorites in Terre Haute and big crowds are expected at the games Tuesday and Wednesday.

"I hear they're going to give you a watch over in Terre Haute," remarked one of the players to Hackett, Monday. "I didn't send them any money to buy it. Whenever you go back to your old town you want to send in advance a few plunks to start the collection and by the time you arrive the present will be walting for you."

Assistant Pitchers.

While the burden of the pitching will fall upon these two twirlers, the condition of weather will determine the amount of work. Mike O'Neil and Eddie Murphy went along in case any help is needed. The regular fielders and Catchers Ryan and Weaver made the trip, Burke going as second baseman.

The game between the Browns and C. B. C. is set for 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. Southpaw Higgins probably will pitch for the Brothers. McAleer is willing to lend the visitors a battery, however. Probably either Powell or Sudhoff will work for the regulars, with Tom Donahue behind the bat. Wednesday Reidy or Slever will twirl against the East Siders.

On account of the possibility of postponement of the spring series in St. Louis there are many open dates this week and next. The Cardinals return to town Thursday merming and will be file, except for practice, until Saturday. No games are scheduled for next Monday and Tuesday. Wednesday the National League season opens with Chacago playing here. The Browns are booked for a short trip through the state next week, while the National League season is getting a start Games have been booked at St. Joe and with the Kansas City Western League club. The Cardinals who did not go to Terre Haute were busy at practice Tuesday morning. The diamond at League Park is unusually firm for this time of the season and Groun seper Fensky has bestowed much case on the pitcher's hox. The box is only three inches higher than the plate, but the gradual slope makes it seem higher to the average spectator. The Browns worked hard on the feld Monday and Tuesday morning. Most of the men are fairly conditioned but they have not had enough hard work since coming home to bring the perspiration except on a warm day.

"Batting practice is what we want." declares Manager McAleer. "Not that I believe that we won't hit the ball, but because we haven't bad enough swinging of bats to get the eyes of some of the players on the ball."

CUTICURA SOAP The World's Greatest Skin Soap.

The World's Sweetest Toilet Soap.

Sale Greater Than the World's Product of Other Skin Soaps.

Sold Wherever Civilization Has Penetrated.

Millions of the world's best people use Cutlcura Soap, assisted by Cutlcura cansing the scalp of crusts, cales and dandruff, and the stopping of falling hair, for softening, whitening and soothing red, rough and sore hands, for baby rashes, itchings and chafings, for annoying irritations, or too free or offensive perspiration, for ulcerative weaknesses, and many sanative, antiseptic purposes which readily suggest themselves to women, especially mothers, as well as for all the purposes of the toilet, bath and nursery.

Cuticura Soap combines delicate emollient properties derived from Cuti-cura, the great skin cure, with the pur-est of cleansing ingredients and the most refreshing of flower odours. No other medicated soap ever compounded is to be compared with it for preserv-ing, purifying and beautifying the skin, scalp, hair and hands. No other forscalp, hair and hands. No other for-cign or domestic toilet soap, however expensive, is to be compared with it for all the purposes of the toilet, bath and nursery. Thus it combines in one soap at one price the most effective skin and complexion soap, and the purest and sweetest toilet, bath and nursery soap ever compounded.

ROLLS FROM CAR WITH THIEF DIVORCED FROM

Writer's Wife Is Free to Marry Again but He May Not.

NEW YORK, April 7.—Mrs. Edith T. Bigelow has obtained an absolute divorce from Poultney Bigelow, on statutory ground. Under the new law an interlocutory decree has been entered in her favor and she will not be wholly free until three months after the filing of the paper in the county clerk's office. Under the wording of the decree, Mrs. Bigelow will then be at liberty to remarry; "as though Mr. Bigelow were dead," while he is prohibited from remarries." Bigelow were dead." while he is prohibited from remarriage "until she is actually dead," a provision which would prevent him from having a marriage ceremony performed in this state, but not elsewhere. Mr. Bigelow came here from Europe during the winter for the avowed purpose of contesting his wife's suit. The case was referred to Charles Donohue, formerly a judge of the Supreme Court. Many witnesses were examined. By the terms of the decree, one of the children, Milared, is to remain in her father's custody, with the provision that her mother may see her and have access to her at any time. The other children. Edith. Evelyn and Dorothy will remain with their mother. Their father may see them when he wishes and each may decide when she comes of sufficient age under the guardlanship of which parent she will continue. Mrs. Bigelow's meiden name was Jaffontinue.

Mrs. Bigelow's meiden name was Jaff-ray. She was married on April 16, 1884, to Mr. Bigelow, a son of John Bigelow, a former United States Minister to the Court of St. James. The German emper-or's friendship for Mr. Bigelow is well known.

NEW IDEA IN SHOE BUSINESS. J. G. Brandt Company Demonstrates Success of Novel Plan.

Something unique in the retail shoe business has been adopted by the J. G. Brandt Shoe Co., North Broadway and Lucas ave-nue. The firm has been hard-pressed for floor space, and the idea was conceived of pening up a department solely for children. A space covering 2500 square feet was fitted up in the basement with all the conitted up in the basement with all the conveniences of a modern shoe store.

This department is reached by a spacious stairway directly opposite the main entrance on Broadway. After descending several steps the stairs turn either way from a convenient landing and one finds one's self in "The Little Folks' Shoe Parlor."

The celling is done in white, and, with its myrlads of incandescent lamps and numerous mirrers, the effect is a pleasing one indeed. At one side there are shoeshining purlors for ladies and gentlemen. The one for the exclusive use of ladies is on the right, and is finished in blue and white. The one for gentlemen is on the left.

white. The one for gentlemen is on the left, as one faces the street, and is finished in pink and willte.

Monday the J G. Brandt Shoe Co, was "at home" to the little folks in their own department. H. C Sattler's orchestra furnished the music, and there were American beauty roses for each little visitor.

As a result of transferring their entire stock of children's shoes to a department by itself the company will devote the main floor to men's and women's shoes. The men's shoes will be found on the north side and the women's shoes on the south side of the store. Under the new present conditions, there are 140 running feet on either side to handle the immense trade. If the first day can be taken as a criterion the new departure will be a huge success for the "Little Folks Parlor" was taxed to its capacity at the very start.

and an ability to bear pain that surprised the City Hospital surgeons.

At Jefferson and Eads avenue, car No. 574 of the Jefferson avenue line, almost severed the boy's body. Justice of the Feace Frank Kleiber and Coal Oil Inspector W. J. Flynn saw the accident. They picked up the crushed little body and carried it to the sidewalk, thinking the boy was dead. The wheels had run across his abdomen, nearly severing his legs.

While lying on the sidewalk, the boy moved about and soon became conscious, Heasked to be taken to a doctor. The ambulance was called. He did not become insensible again until death was at hand. He was a nephew of Anton C. Stuever and of Arthur Stutz, clerk of the Criminal Court. His home was at 2901 Geyer avenue.

Mrs. Weisslitz, president of the German Womans' Club of Buffalo, N. Y., after doctoring for two years, was finally cured of her kidney trouble by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Of all the diseases known with which the female organism is afflicted, kidney disease is the most fatal. In fact, unless prompt and correct treatment is applied, the weary patient seldom survives.

Being fully aware of this, Mrs. Pinkham, early in her career, gave exhaustive study to the subject, and in producing her great remedy for woman's ills—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—was careful to see that it contained the correct combination of herbs which was sure to control that dreaded disease, woman's kidney troubles. The Vegetable Compound acts in harmony with the laws that govern the entire female system, and while there are many so called remedies for kidney troubles, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the only one especially prepared for women.

Read What Mrs. Welsslitz Says.

"Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—For two years my life was simply a burden, I suffered so with female troubles, and pains across my back and loins. The doctor told me that I had kidney troubles and prescribed for me. For three months I took his medicines, but grew steadily worse. My husband then advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and brought home a bottle. It is the greatest blessing ever brought to our home. Within three months I was a changed woman. My pain had disappeared, my complexion became clear, my eyes bright, and my entire system in good shape."—Mrs. Paul A Weisslitz, 176 Seneca St., Buffalo, N. Y.

Proof that Kidney Trouble can be Cured by Lydia R. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—I feel very thankful to you for the good your medicine has done me. I had doctored for years and was steadily growing worse. I had trouble with my kidneys, and two doctors told me I had Bright's disease; also had falling of the womb, and could not walk a block at a time. My back and head ached all the time, and I was so nervous I could not sleep; had hysteria and fainting spells, was tired all the time, had such a pain in my left side that I could hardly stand at times without putting my foot on something.

"I doctored with several good doctors, but they did not help me any. I took, in all, twelve bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, five boxes of Liver Pills, and used three packages of Sanative Wash, and feel like a new woman, can eat and sleep well, do all my own work, and can walk two miles without feeling over tired. The doctors tell me that my kidneys are all right now. I am so happy to be well, and I feel that I owe it all to your medicine."—Mrs. Opal Strong, Dalton, Mass.

I cannot talk of the new field, or even of the change at all, until I have received full and formal notification of my selection."

Bishop Hogan, after warmly congratulation of the conduction and it warmly congratulations have conducted and it was such as the conduction of the conduction and it warmly congratulations.

ing his coadjutor, said: "It is just what I expected. Bishop Glennon is young, vigorous and capable. The others mentioned for the position are old men. In a short time either would be in need of a coadjutor to assist in his work, whereas, Bishop Glen-non will require no aid. The Propaganda has made a wise selection. The holy father will have to pass on the appointment, but that is only a form, and in few weeks we will receive the official notice of his promotion.

"The fact that the congregation of the propoganda acted upon the request of the bishops today is a surprise, for today is the beginning of Holy Week, and it is strictly observed by everyone at Rome.

Bishop Hogan's joy was unbounded. His eyes flashed when he talked of his protege,

The ideas reached the emperor through an editor, N. A. Demchinsky, who procured an interview with the ozar a few months ago at Livadia. Before taking leave he is reported to have said:

"Your majesty, I have something else to say, at the risk of your displeasure, I must beg permission to tell you the truth."

"What is the truth?" the emperor is said to have asked. "The truth about what?"

Mr. Demschinsky then spoke of the prevailing discontent among all classes and of the consequences that might ensue if it were not appeased. He procured permission to write at length on the subject and to propose a remedy. This he did by adopting Sharapov's plan.

Dr. Demschinksky's essay was shown to Prince Meschersky, who, it is believed, assisted the Emperor in preparing the first draft of the manifesto. This was submitted to Minister Plehve. Finding it in some respects reactionary, the latter called together Mr. Loupoukhim, chief of the department of police, and two young officials of his own chancellory and late the same evening submitted an amended draft to the Emperor. This falled to satisfy the czar and it was 3 a. m. before the manifesto, as published, was ready.

The Emperor's original draft is believed to have made a stronger plea for religious tolerance than the published manifesto.

Diplomatic circles report that upon being congratulated over the favorable foreign criticisms of the manifesto, the Emperor smiled and said:

There was a storm. The hospitality of the Bower mansion was withdrawn from Mr. Skinner, who had before been well-comed as a guest along with the other young people of the town. Hope was for-bidden to receive his attentions.

The prohibition was not effective. They met calcadestinely. The homes of friends who sympathized with them were open to them. They met quite as often as they had before, and their affection grew as the opposition increased.

Fier father learned of this, and, in his wrath, he declared that his daughter should either give the young man up or leave her home.

But society was limited in the small Illinois city and distinctions were not closely drawn by the young people.

The young man and the girl sang in the choir of the Presbyterian Church. They had grown up together in the town, and were on the terms of familiar friendship which is usual under such circumstances.

The choir met once a week to practice.
Their homes were in the same direction, and it was very natural that they should saunter homeward along the board walks together, talking about the things which were of mutual interest to them.

He was dark and good looking, and she was fair and more than ordinarily pretty, and it was perhaps natural that love came into their lives as they walked and talked through the stillness of the village streets after the weekly choir meetings.

After awhile, as they walked homeward, their conversation was of only one thing, and that was of mutual interest to them.

Nevertheless the fact was made plain that there is talent in St. Louis which ought to be cultivated. Readers of the Sunday Post-Dispatch will agree that "Between Trips" is a well-con structed story full of incident and vivacity and written in good style. If this is Mr. Riley's first attempt he has reason to think himself equal to a second.

THE PRESIDENT'S INCONSISTENCY.

President Roosevelt's answer to the Iowa Republicans who want the tariff on trust products repealed and to the great mass of Republicans and Democrats throughout the West who demand a fair revision of the extreme tariff schedules of the Dingley tariff law is an emphatic no.

The President places no value upon tariff repeal as a remedy for trust extortion. In fact, he sneers at the suggestion. His reason for opposing the repeal of the tariff taxes on trust products is that in striking at the big trusts we may hit the smalle ndent manufacturers.

people involved in the protection of monopolies. If the trusts are able to make such perfect combinations that they can control prices and thus extort unreasonable profits out of the American people the main question concerns the protection of the people from these extortionate monopolies, not the protection of the smaller corporations which are incidentally snabled o share in the spoils of monopoly.

The tariff wall is the opportunity of the monopoly combina don. It makes the combination for the control of the hom market possible.

Figuratively speaking, the government, through the tariff, holds the consumer while the trust monopoly goes through his pockets, the smaller independent corporation taking what the

Every mother feels a great dread of the pain and danger attendant upon the most critical period of her life. Becoming a mother should be a source of joy to all, but the suffering and danger incident to the ordeal makes its anticipation one of misery. Mother's Friend is the only remedy which relieves women of the great pain and danger of maternity; this hour which is dreaded as woman's eeverest trial is not only made painless, but all the danger is avoided by its use. Those who use this remedy are no longer despondent or overcome, the system is made ready for the coming event, and the serious accidents so common to the critical hour are obviated by the use of Mother's Friend. "It is worth its weight in gold," says many who have used it. $1.00 per hour are obviated by the use of Mother's bottle at drug stores. Friends Aid Mary Rosenau. the Child Who Shouldered the Cares of Seven.

Mrs. Mary Rosenau of 1863 Elliot avenue, the mother of "The Little Mother," is recovering. She is so anxious to be well that Tuesday morning she tried to walk about the floor. She got as far as the door, but he helped to her bed by her two eldest children.

There she lies, wondering how it is that where she got the strength to do the work that she did for her suffering husband.

'The Almighty must have given it to me," she says as she listens to her seven children at play in the down stairs rooms. Her care could not save her husband's life. Both he and the little baby died on the same day. Then the wife and mother that had been so strong became weak and the care of the whole household of seven children was left to Mary Rosenau, aged is years.

The dead had to be buried and the sick nursed. The story was printed in the Post-Dispatch and neighbors and friends came to help. So did other charitable persons.

Little Mary Rosenau's burdens were lifted from her shoulders. Neighbors say that they did not believe there was so much charity in the world. The funeral was held and Mrs. Rosenau was given care.

All Mrs. Rosenau wants now is strength. She means to try for it each day, hoping that her efforts will cause her to gain power to care for her children.

She means to work for them while those who do not go to school are in the care of "The Little Mother."

Federal Grandjury Called. Judge Adams of the United Statos district court ordered the summoning of a panel for the Federal grandjury to convene May 12. The order was issued Tuesday morning and with it an order for a petit jury to meet May 5.

Saloon Man Complains of Check. A warrant was issued Tuesday for E. A. Hardy of 2705 Cook avenue, manager of a Delmar avenue livery stable, charging him with passing a worthless check on a maloonkeeper at Morgan street and Taylor avenue.

BUFFALO, April 7.—It is now impossible to divorce the Pennell inquest from the Burdick inquest. Too many facts have come to light establishing a seeming connection be tween the two. This apparent connection must be established or discredited.

esides the statement in self defense Pennell left letters to friends about the Burdick case, detective reports, detective bills and other documents pertaining to the shadowing of Burdick in an effort to get evidence against him upon which Mrs. Bur-dick could base a divorce case. It is stated that the authorities have some of these at the Pennell inquest and thus secure fur-ther light concerning Burdick's life and pos-sibly of Burdick's death. The inquiry which begins Friday may clear up the Burdick murder.

BUFFALO, N. Y., April 7.-Wallace Thayer, intimate friend of the late Arthur Pennell, today confirmed the story of Pennell's embezzling. He did not undertake to give the total sum of Pennell's stealing. Mr. Thayer held the "secret opinion." trust" which was two insurance policies, the benefits of which were to be paid to Mrs. Burdick as a kind of recompense Mrs. Burdick as a kind of recompense for winning her love from her husband.

Mr. Thaney's story leaves no doubt that Pennell deliberately killed his wife and himself by sending his automobile over a wall into a stone quarry. It leaves the question of who killed Burdick as much a mystery as ever, though it clearly shows the desperation to which Pennell's wrong doing had driven him.

"This is terrible news," exclaimed Mrs. Alice Hull Burdick when informed that Pennell was a defaulter.

"When did you first learn of Mr. Pennell's alleged shortage?" Mrs. Burdick was asked.

"Never to this moment," she said positively.

"You are absolutely sure that Mr. Pennell never told you anything about a financial difficulty of this sort?"

"Oh, yes, quite. He never said anything about it at all."

Charles S. Parke, former partner of the murdered Burdick, said:

"Edwin L. Burdick believed that Pennell was amassing life insurance in preparation for suicide. He also believed that Pennell secured the money he spent in some frauduent manner."

Mr. Thayer reluctantly admitted today the truth of the statement that Pennell was a defaulter. The information came to Mr. Thayer from J. Fred Pennell, brother of the dead man, and was discovered when the brother, as administrator, was going through the papers of Arthur R. Pennell.

Nevertheless, the ordinary shares of the Edison were exceedingly active and strong. Buying was conspicuously by one firm, while selling was well scatteered among the traders. The close was at the high price, $23, which is almost high record mark for this stock.

The preferred Edison shares also bounded $2 higher, $50 being bid for them, but none offered.

The syndicate street railway shares were very dull again. St. Louis transit brought $27 for a broken lot, while United Railways, preferred, sold at $79.75.

There was a materially better demand for National Bank of Commerce shares today. It was plain that many of the weak holders of this security have been eliminated, to the benefit of its market position. It sold at $365 today, with $365.25 bid later. None was offered, however.

Dramatis personae:

Mr. Lawrence—Mr. Lawrence.

Mrs. Lawrence—Carrie Rudolph, Marguerite Le Vyne, Kittle Howard, Ernestine Kingston, Miss L. B. Brinckerhoff, Dorothy Drew, Reata Winfield.

Lawyers, judges, court clerks, clergymen, witnesses, actors, actress and correspond-

The drama of which the foregoing is the cest has so many acts and the scenario is so complex and varied that it would never make an acting success, any more than it has made a success in real life, for Lionei Lawrence, the hero, is very much alive, and so are most of his wives, though he is no Mormon. Therefore only a synopsis of the play can be given here, and for interest's sake it may be as well to begin with the last act and tell the story backward.

As a matter of fact, the last act is yet to be played.
Its scene will be in the supreme court and Justice Blanchard will play a leading role, for to him Myrtle Canady Lawrence, known of the stage as Reata Winfield, has appiled for an absolute divorce.
And now to go back to the last act but one, that in which the hero and heroine are married.
In August, 1901, Miss Winfield was playing an engagement on the roof garden of a New York theater with her violin. On the night of August 51 Lawrence, Miss Winfield and several friends were in the rathskeller of the theater when one of the party suggested that it would be a good thing for "Larry" and Reata to get married.
"Good scheme" recovered Lawrence and several recovered the suggested that it would be a good thing for "Larry" and Reata to get married.

party suggested that it would be a good thing for "Larry" and Reata to get married.

"Good scheme," rejoined Lawrence; "nothing would please me better."
Reata said she was agreeable, and the wedding took place at the unusual hour of 3.25 a. m.

The preceding acts tell of Lionel Lawrence's other matrimonial ventures and their endings. He does not quite remember how many wives he has, but is willing to admit that there has been four, his first wife, who was not of the "profession," having died; his second wire, Dorothy Drew, having divorced him; that his third wife, Ernestine Kingston, was divorced from him; that his fourth wife, Reata Winfield, is now engaged in a similar quest.

When Dorothy Drew sued him for divorce there appeared as one of her witnesses Marguerite Le Vyne.

"Lawrence and I were travelling in the company in Canada," said Marguerite. "It was in the spring of 1895, and at Windsor, Canada, we were merried. I always forgot dates and things, but here is my marriage certificate."

Carrie Rudolph, a California girl, also appeared upon this trial and said she had a married to lawrence in Jersey City. When Law once was playing in "Dr. Jakyil and Mr. 129de" he met Klitty Howard on a train coming from Chicago. Soon after the death of the were married. I always for on a train coming from Chicago. Soon after the were married. On December 13, 1997, Lawrence was married quietly in Jersey City to Miss L. B. Brinckerhoff, daughter of the New York millionaire cracker manufacturer of that name.

Marriage to Ernestine Kingston is set forth as having taken place on November me.

Marriage to Ernestine Kingston is set rth as having taken place on November 1887, but this is probably a mistake. In My, 1901. Lawrence began a suit against of for divorce, in which he named three respondents. A decree was granted on earriage with Dorothy Drew took place in
M. the decree of divorce being granted on ovember 20, 1895. Then there is a Lillian on who has been mentioned as his wife.
hether she is or not probably the evidence be taken in this suit will show.

A. B. Dupont, general manager of the Transit Company, and John Grant, super-intendent, were delayed half an hour on the "Calamity Line" between St. Louis and Clayton Monday by the derailment of a car, and during the tedious wait they promised a county judge that improvements would be made within a week. They said that hereafter cars will be turned at Forsythe junction, where passengers can transfer either to the Delmar or the Olive street lines.

During the wait they heard all sorts of uncomplimentary things said about the Transit Company. Some of the passengers did not know that the officers of the system were on the car, and others did.
